Forecast For East Midlands
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Sunday 03 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cold and showery.

Today:
Mostly cloudy with frequent and often heavy showers. These will mostly fall as rain or hail, but they may turn wintry over the Peak District at times. Breezy and feeling cold with icy patches possible. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Tonight:
Scattered showers will continue overnight with occasional clear spells allowing frost and ice to form. Showers may continue to be wintry over the Peak District. Remaining breezy and cold. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Monday:
A mixture of sunny spells and scattered showers on Monday, these occasionally heavy with hail. Breezy at the coast and cold for all. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Staying cold with sunny periods and occasional showers on Tuesday and Wednesday. Perhaps mostly dry and bright on Thursday. Sharp frosts overnight and a risk of ice.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.